BY TELEGRAPH.

From Corinth.

Telegraphed Expressly for the Bulletin.]

MOBILE, April 12.

Nothing interesting has been received

Memphis papers state that Island No 10 has been evacuated or captured.

A dispatch to the Vicksburg Whig, dated Memphis, April 9th, states that Lt. Bain left Island 10 on the night of the 7th, and reports that the Island was not taken by the enemy.

Our papers contain nothing but local details in reference to the killed and wounded in the late Battles.

Important News.

Telegraphed Expressly for the Bulletin.]

SAVANNAH, April 12.

The following from the Republican of this morning, is fully credited in official circles.

SURRENDER OF FORT PULASKI.

It is with sincere regret that we learn, since our country edition went to press, that Fort Pulaski, after a most gallant defence against guns vastly superior to its own, surrendered to the enemy at 2 o'clock, P. M., yesterday.

Corporal Law, of the Phœnix Rifles, stationed at Thunderbolt, brings the information direct. He reached the Fort at five o'clock, A. M., yesterday, and started on his return trip after the flag was struck.

The surrender was unconditional.

Seven large breaches were made in the south wall of the Fort, by the battery of eight parrot guns at King's landing. All the barbette guns were dismounted and three casemate guns, leaving but one gun bearing on that point.

Three balls had entered the magazine and a clear breach had been made in it.—The balls were conical and steel pointed, and propelled with such force as to pass entirely through the wall, at nearly every fire.

No lives were lost during the bombardment. Four men were wounded; three privates. No names are given.

The Oglethorpe, occupied the most exposed portion of the Fort. Lieut. Hussey was stunned but not seriously hurt.

Col. Olmstead sent no Official Dispatch, but a verbal message that the garrison had done all that men could do. He attempted to signalize to Canston's Bluff yesterday morning, but such was the fire that no human being could stand on the ramparts for even a moment. Nearly a thousand shell of the largest size were thrown into the Fort from the Federal batteries.

It will be gratifying to know that though much exhausted, all the garrison are well except the four wounded men. We think this may be relied on as correct. We could obtain no further particulars, but the above is corroberated by another witness, a signal man, who went down and returned in company with Law.

In addition to the above we learn that the enemy brought two of their large vessels into the River yesterday, anchoring one breast of the Fort and the other opposite their battery at Oakly point.

From Corinth.

A gentleman of Augusta saw Judge David Irwin in Atlanta on the 10th inst., read a dispatch at Marietta, stating that Beauregard had been reinforced by Van Dorn's column, and had achieved a complete victory over Buell on Tuesday.

[The wires are up from Marietta to Corinth, and we do not doubt that the above dispatch was received. We have telegraphed to Atlanta for particulars, and await their reception.]—Editorial Augusta Constitutionalist April 11.

Later from Corinth.

We are indebted to the Commonwealth for the following dispatch, dated

ATLANTA, April 10.

A dispatch received yesterday noon at Marietta states that Van Dorn and command formed a Junction with Beauregard on Tuesday night, and Buell attacked their combined force on Wednesday morning, and was repulsed. No particulars, and nothing direct received.

Still Later.

A late dispatch from the Commonwealth says that Island No 10 is reported evacuated or surrendered.

The report that Beauregard had fallen back to his original lines with the loss of the batteries captured on Sunday, confirmed.

Latest.

A report is current that the Federals have asked three days armistic to bury their dead, and is considered somewhat reliable. May get more news.

From Norfolk.

NORFOLK, April 11.

[FOURTH DISPATCH.]

3 P. M.—The Confederate fleet is off Sewell's Point. The Monitor is under the guns of Fortress Monroe.

Twelve white men and two negroes have been brought up to this city. They are a portion of the crews of the captured vessels.

[FIFTH DISPATCH.]

6 P. M.—No fight yet. Another brig captured. There is a large Federal fleet between the guns of Fortress Monroe and the Rip Raps.

There was a grand stampede of Federal brigs and schooners this morning on the approach of the Virginia.

Multitudes went down to Sewell's Point to witness the expected fight.

PROSPECTUS
HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,
DEVOTED TO
POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.
PUBLISHED BY
DENNIS HEART 1.
HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.
WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

Six copies, one year.....10.00

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
STATE JOURNAL.
HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.
The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.
As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.
The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.
The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:
Semi-Weekly, per annum.....$4 00
Weekly.....2 00
These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.
Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:
One square, first insertion.....$1 00
Each subsequent insertion.....25 cents.
A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER
THE TIMES;
A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro.
$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.
THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.
WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.
"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.
"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.
"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald
"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.
"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers."—Raleigh Standard.

One square, (10 lines or less) one insertion...50 cts
Each subsequent insertion.....25 cts
When an advertisement is inserted in the Weekly, or but once a week in the Daily, 50 cents a square for each insertion.
We offer to advertisers the inducement of sending their favors to be read by a numerous and influential class of readers, both in town and country. The Southern Guardian presents great advantages as an advertising medium; its circulation is large, and is daily and rapidly extending, particularly in the middle and upper [illegible] of the state.
JOB PRINTING.
The Job Office is thoroughly appointed in all respects, and fitted for every description of Job Work. In connection with it is a Bindery.
The Southern Guardian is devoted to the maintenance of the rights, honor and interests of the South under the Constitution. While it is willing to sustain the Democratic party whenever its course shall command approval by its justice, it yet more confidently and distinctly relies upon the people of the South; and as the best preparation for the contest which is even now upon us, it will zealously labor to effect union and co-operation amongst ourselves.
In the management of this journal, the early production of every class of news from all parts of the world, the lessons of virtue and morality, the interests of education, agriculture, commerce, and manufactures,—will be kept prominently in view, and no effort will be spared to make it, in all respects, an acceptable fire-side visitor.
☞ We send our Daily to nearly all the Weekly newspapers of the State. Will they, in consideration of this advantage, kindly give the above prospectus a few insertions. june 1

The Literary Paper of the South
"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"
THE TIMES.
THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!
THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choicest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.
The fifth volume commences with the new year 1860. Engagements have been made to make it the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.
Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. THE CHARLESTON MERCURY
A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER.
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY
THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.
The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

CHARLOTTE, March 1, 1862.

The Situation at Island No. 10.

The Memphis Appeal of Monday last says:

On Tuesday night last one of the enemy's gunboats passed our fortifications and Island 10 during the storm. She passed down under the observation, we learn, of our commanders, but was only to be seen by the flashes of lightning. Many shots, we hear, were fired at her, but at random, as the instant of light being too transient and fleeting for our gunners to make anything else than a random shot, by guess, in the darkness of the night and the fury of the storm. She is at New Madrid, under cover of the enemy's battery. It is believed that the Federals are erecting rafts or boats, upon which they hope, by the assistance and aid of this gunboat, to land their forces on the Tennessee side of the Mississippi River, below Island 10, and at or above Tiptonville—and thus capture, by their large force, our batteries on the Tennesse shore, and then Island 10; and thus, at that point, to remove an impassable barrier to the descent of their boats and transports down the Mississippi, so long as they can hold their positions.

The adjacent country affords ample supplies for our forces, and in many respects, it is a most eligible and commanding situation. The enemy can only capture our forts, &c., by crossing the Mississippi below them. A small force with a vigilant commander, located on the Tennessee shore, can prevent the landing of any large force by the Federals, in any sort of craft or boat which they can construct, from the opposite side of the river. What this gunboat may be able to effect towards the landing of the enemy's force on our side of the Mississippi river, must be thwarted.

Our accounts from Fort Pillow and the Mississippi river are full of encouragement, and quite satisfactory.

CAPT. JOHN H. MORGAN.—This gentle man, now so famous as a partisan warrior, s the son of Calvin Morgan, and was born in the year 1825, at Huntsville, Ala. His uncle, Samuel D. Morgan, who resides at Nashville, Tenn., his father and our informant, a sister in law of the latter, who resides below Algiers, were then living in Huntsville. She describes him as a child of peculiarly bold and corrageous traits. His maternal grandfather was John Hunt, of Lexington, Ky., whose name he bears. Calvin Morgan moved to Lexington when John was young, and this will account for a statement we see made by the Atlanta (Ga.) Commonwealth that he was born in Lexington. His paternal grandfather was Luther Morgan, who, and his brothers and forefathers, were famous as Indian fighters.

His cousin, St. Clair Morgan, will be remembered as one who went to Charleston and threw himself into the most dangerous positions as a soldier at the taking of Fort Sumter, and who was afterwards dangerously wounded in a desperate duel at Pensacola. Courage and fortitude are the peculiar characteristics of the Morgans. The whole family and its connections are earnest and steadfast friends of the Confederate cause; but it might unnecessarily subject some of them to persecution to go into particulars.—Algiers Newsboy.

CHURCH BELLS NOT EXPECTED.—The subjoined correspondence will explain itself:

Major-General G. T Beauregard, Jackson, Tenn:

MEMPHIS, March 22, 1862.—My Dear Sir: I am directed by the First Baptist Church of this city to tender to you, for the Confederate States, the bell of our church, with the prayer that God may give you wisdom to direct our army, that you may be able to drive the invader from our soil, and that peace and prosperity may speedily be restored to our entire Confederacy.

Will you direct me what to do with the Bell?

Accept our best wishes for your health and prosperity.

Your obedient servant,

J. G FLOURNOY.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE MISS.,
Corinth, March 30, 1862.

My Dear Sir—Your letter of the 22d inst., offering me, for the use of the Confederate States, the Bell of the First Baptist Church, has been received.

I have the assurance, from a number of people, that the planters will all furnish me their bells; and, relying upon this promise, I have declined the offer of many churches to furnish me theirs also.

With my kindest thanks for your wishes for our common cause, and my health and prosperity,

I remain yours, very raspectfully,

G. T. BEAUREGARD, Gen. Com.

To J. G. Flournoy, Esq., Memphis, Tennessee.

ECLIPSES.—There will be five eclipses this year, as follows:

1. A total eclipse of the moon just before and after midnight on July 11. Total eclipse begins an hour and seven minutes after the beginning, and lasts one hour and three minutes. Total duration, three hours, seventeen minutes.

2. A partial eclipse of the sun, June 26, in the morning. Invisible in America, but visible in the Indian Ocean.

3. A partial eclipse of the sun, November 21. Invisible in America, but seen in the great Southern Ocean.

4. Partial eclipse of the sun, November 20. Invisible in America, but visible in Asia generally.

5. A total eclipse of the moon, early in the morning of December 6—visible. The eclipse becomes total one hour and nine minutes after the beginning, and lasts one hour and thirty-two minutes. Total duration, three hours and forty minutes.

In Great Distress.

In consequence of sickness and the scarcity of Compositors, we were barely able to issue this morning's paper.

Funds are abundant and paper and ink are in superabundance, but we cannot get a reliable force of Compositors, all of the best material, (except those now in service,) having gone to the war.

There are others more fortunate than we have been, who have never been compelled to make a similar apology, because their employees remain at home. It is their luck but our misfortune. We will do the best we can until our force is strengthened.

We pay weekly and full prices.

To the Ladies of Mecklenburg.

The ladies of Mecklenburg and all others interested in the Soldiers now sick in the Hospital, at Kinston, N. The Conscription Bill.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 12th inst., says:

The Conscription Bill passed the Senate in secret session on the 11th inst., yesterday. It conforms to the President's recommendation, that all persons between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five be enrolled for active service. The House had the bill under consideration the same night.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Dear Bulletin:

Feeling a deep and profound interest in the success of our arms, prompts me to make the following communication to call attention to the fact that Professor LYNCH is trying to raise a company in this county, I take the Charlotte papers, and while I see regular and glowing accounts of others engaged in the same business, no mention has yet been made of his name, in this connection. Whether this proceeds from want of information of the fact, or acquaintance with the gentleman, I am not prepared to say, but this much I am ready to vouch for—That none who in proposing to give their services to the support of the Southern Arms are more worthy of position, none can sacrifice more, but precious few, if any are better posted in military tactics, having received regular military training, and for general information his equal is not often to be found in men of his age. A strictly temperate and good christain man (all qualities very important for an officer to possess) and in his proper position would be an honor to Old Mecklenburg, as he now is to Davidson College. His company is for the War, and if made will give a good report. I am not writing for publication but in justice, seeking a notice proper in your valuable paper of the facts above hoping that you will give form as well as expression to the sentiments contained. Very truly yours,

M.

LET EVERY MAN DO HIS DUTY!—We need not again remind our readers that we are now in the very crisis of a life-struggle, when every man should promptly and bravely do his whole duty. If every element of strength is called into requisition and every energy exerted to its fullest capacity, we do not fear the final result. If, on the other hand, we hesitate, falter, despond, and fail to muster into the service of our imperilled and bleeding country every available resource, we are lost and that without remedy. We will not attempt to enumerate or portray the untold evils and horrors of subjugation. We leave to the imagination to picture the condition of a gallant, proud and prosperous people, suddenly reduced from the high dignity and divested of the rich heritage of freemen, to the fearful degradation of serfs to a vulgar and fanatical despotism.

Let the miser leave his money bags; the wealthy pour out their treasures like water; the extortioner scatter his ill-gotten gains among the poor; the christain lift up his heart in prayer; the able bodied, with heroic courage, grasp the weapons of warfare—in short, let all, with every available appliance, rally to the rescue of the country, and all will yet go well. Otherwise, the rising sun of our new nationality will go down, ere it reaches its zenith, in darkness and blood. God help every man who does his whole duty to God and his country.—Macon Messenger.

Suspicious Movements of Foreign Vessels.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of April 2d, says:

The British war steamer Rinaldo, which for several weeks past has been anchored outside our fleet off the mouth of the Chesapeake, got up steam this morning, and proceeded to a new anchoring ground, midway between the fortress and Newport's News. This strange proceedings—for strange it is—deserves an explanation. The point this steamer is now anchored at is directly in the way of our fleet in case the rebel steamer Merrimac essays to come out from Norfolk again. The anchorage ground marks the turn in the ship channel diverging to Newport's News and to this point—an excellent guide for the Merrimac in case she makes a [illegible] of the officers of the Rinaldo, after the change of that vessel's anchorage, he replied that "It was done in order to have a good view of the next battle between the Merrimac and the Monitor." Who told him that there was to be another fight between these vessels? Did the commander of the Rinaldo receive official information from the British Consul at Richmond?

The commander of the French steamer Catinat, which arrived here last week, is also guilty of a palpable breach of naval etiquette. On his arrival he first anchored outside of our fleet, and subsequently steamed to a point about half a mile south of the government wharf and cast anchor, so as to put his vessel a short distance from and outside the Monitor, thus obscuring the view from the latter of Elizabeth river, Sewell's Point and other points necessary for the latter vessel to watch against rebel encroachments. One week has elapsed since this occurred, and yet the commander of the French steamer has not seen proper to move his vessel out of the way of the Monitor, so that the latter can have an unobstructed view of any movements of the rebels.

SORE THROATS—SALT AS A REMEDY.—In these days, when diseases of the throat are so prevalent and in many cases so fatal, the use of common salt is recommended as an effectual remedy. We commenced by using it three times a day—morning, noon and night. We dissolved a large tablespoonful of pure table salt in about half a tumbler full of cold water. With this we gargled the throat most thoroughly before meal time. The result has been that during the entire winter we were not only free from the usual coughs and colds to which, so far as my memory extends, we have always been subject, but the dry, hacking cough has entirely disappeared. We attribute this satisfactory result entirely to the use [illegible]

HEAVY FRESHET.—The rain Tuesday night was the heaviest witnessed for many years throughout Middle Georgia. Every railroad running towards Macon, except the Macon and Western, was washed away in places, and a general stoppage or detention of trains followed. The Southwestern line, we learn, was so badly injured that it will be some days before the trains can pass over it. Over three hundred feet of the Central track, between Nos. 14 and 15 were washed away, and passengers have to exchange cars until it is restored.
